Clarification of News Report

This refers to the points below that were taken from the column of Mr Victor C. Agustin for "Money-Go-Round" in the June 19, 2017 issue of the Philippine Star.

"The share price of sugar conglomerate Roxas Holdings has bucked the trifecta of the Marawi seizure, martial law, and impending tax hike, jumping 70 percent within a month unnoticed by the usual market punters.

The rumor, and more scintillating, part is that controlling shareholder First Pacific Group has reached an understanding with a Philippine conglomerate to sell its 59- percent stake in the Nasugbu, Batangas sugar mill and refinery, Central Azucarera Don Pedro.

According to the Batangas grapevine, and this is the second part of the rumor, the founding and now minority shareholding group Roxas and Co., led by Roxas Holdings chairman Pedro Roxas, will join the First Pacific Group in the putative disposal.

Roxas, according to the grapevine, will also avail of the golden parachute to avoid possible chemistry issues with the incoming majority owner.

All material information in respect of RHI and its subsidiaries was duly disclosed to the Exchange in accordance with its relevant rules. We are not aware of any transaction or agreement that could have triggered the unusual share price fluctuation.

RHI is not aware of any transaction or agreement for the sale of its shares or any of its material assets.

Should there be any agreement entered in the future for the sale of RHI shares or any of its material assets, the necessary disclosures will be timely made in compliance with the disclosure rules of the Exchange.
