Date of Publication	Feb 24, 2015

Clarification of News Report

This refers to the news article in the Business Mirror dated 24 February 2015 which said in part that:

"Sugar miller Roxas Holdings Inc. said it is looking at putting up its own economic zone within its properties in Negros Occidental and Nasugbu, Batangas, as the company ventures into high-value sugar production.

Company officials said some 300 hectares in the La Carlota plant in Negros Occidental and 150 hectares in the Batangas facility may be set aside for the envisioned sugar economic zone.

Roxas Holdings Chairman Pedro Roxas said, however, that the company is still looking at the legality of the implementation and that it would take about two years to roll out the project. The company accounts for about 20 percent of annual Philippine sugar output.

Roxas Holdings said it is also planning to put up an integrated sugar complex in Indonesia, in partnership with First Pacific Co. Inc.'s unit Indo Food.

The sugar complex would feature an ethanol plant and a cogeneration facility.

In connection thereto, we confirm that our Chairman, Mr. Pedro E. Roxas, mentioned the above quoted statements during an interview by press people after the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the company on 18 February 2015. Please note however that the said business plans are still being studied and no decisions have yet been made on the matter.
